Subject: Instructions to the counsel of AAI - reg.

It has come to the notice that in one of the Court cases, the counsel of AAI conveyed acceptance of the conditions given in the undertaking of a petitioner (AAI employee) before the Hon'ble Court of Law, without any approval of CHQ or written communication.

2. In the light of the above, all Heads of Departments are hereby advised to ensure that henceforth, no instructions should be given to the counsel of AAI to give consent to any conditions(s) proposed by the opposite party in any Court case, without the approval of the Member concerned and also that no counsel of AAI should give such consent in any case before any Court of Law, without any written communication to that effect from the Authority.

3. This may be brought to the notice of all concerned for strict compliance and taking appropriate action, as deemed fit, against erring officials.
