FOREWORD

I have immense pleasure in going through the booklet titled "A Guide for Employees to ensure Healthy, Ethical and Safe workplace for all – Workplace Code of Conduct: Do's & Don'ts" prepared by Kalyanmayee, the Women Welfare Association of Airports Authority of India, working under the leadership of Smt. Archana Agrawal, Wife of Shri V.P. Agrawal, Chairman of AAI. The booklet is not only a pioneering effort rather first of its kind in this direction. The booklet is bi-lingual and has been produced through recycled paper and printed through an in-house press developed and maintained by Kalyanmayee. The book is rich in its content with examples and remedial measures, the myths and facts etc. The publication of such a booklet within a short span of time is really commendable and is worth appreciation; needs to be emulated among other PSUs and Government bodies.

I have great pleasure in extending my greetings and facilitations to all those associated with this publication and I wish them all success in developing a safe work place where individual's fundamental and legal rights are protected.
